Parent Code of Conduct

Introduction

We have developed this code of conduct for all families and staff of St. Michael's Preschool. This code of conduct will set the understanding that at St. Michael's Preschool, mutual respect and trust is expected. This code has been developed for parents and/or guardians and preschool staff ensuring they are aware of and meet the Preschool's expectations with regard to their interactions with the preschool staff, other parents and children.

Purpose

Our goal is to promote positive relationships with all members of our preschool community.

Policy

The preschool is responsible for fostering positive relationships among children, staff, families and our community. It is important that all parties involved recognize and respect this and support these requirements.

Procedures

Communications whether verbal or in writing should:

- Show respect, courtesy and consideration
- Not harass, threaten or bully others
- Not use inappropriate language
- Not be confrontational

If a parent fails to observe this Code of Conduct the preschool may terminate the enrollment of the child.
